

Dunkirk Harbour & Oye Plage, France

“Winter Birding” Feb. 11

A great day out across the Channel just north of Calais for wintering sea-duck including divers [Red-throated, Black-throated & Great Northern], grebes [Red-necked, Slavonian & Black-necked], Shag, Eider, Long-tailed Duck, Greater Scaup, Common & Velvet Scoters, Red-breasted Merganser & Goosander, along with Purple Sandpiper and perhaps “white-winged” gulls. Nearby Peregrine, Common Buzzard & Hen Harrier occur, along with Golden Plover, Snow Bunting & Shore Lark.

Cost: £79 inc. ferry crossing, transportation & full guidance. Due: Dec. 11

