

The Shetlands

Seabird Spectacular "In comfort & style"

June 26-July 1

The Habitat? Spectacular towering sea cliffs, stacks & natural arches, dramatic sea inlets [voes], rocky coastlines, deserted white sandy beaches & spits, blanket heather moorland & serpentine debris. It's wonderfully remote!

Red-necked Phalarope

The Wildlife? It's the premier site in Britain for seabirds! Hundreds of thousands of Gannets crammed onto cliff ledges, Puffins, Guillemots & Razorbills galore, Black Guillemots, Fulmars & Shags, marauding Bonxies, "spinning" Red-necked Phalaropes, Whimbrels, Snipe "drumming" and Red-throated Divers "wailing". Beautiful Marsh Orchids plus the ultra-rare Edmonston's Chickweed & Norwegian Sandwort. Otters fishing offshore, Blue Hares hiding, Grey Seals, and perhaps a school of Dolphins, a hunting pod of Killer Whales, even a Minke Whale. All in the "Simmer Dim"!

Gannetry, Hermaness

The Accommodation? Busta House Hotel, overlooking Busta Voe north of Lerwick for the 5-nt. stay. Sprinkled with centuries of history and a liberal touch of elegance, add a generous helping of fine cuisine, accompanied by a carefully chosen wine, blend in a mature malt and place all the above on a carefully prepared bed of tranquillity, character & romance. Then just enjoy!

Day's boat excursions to explore Yell searching for Otter, Unst inc. the world famous Gannetry at Hermaness and the Keen of Hamar for rare plants, and Fetlar to seek out the endangered Red-necked Phalarope.
